Dear Friends:

I am pleased to have this opportunity to extend my personal greetings to everyone associated with the Dikembe Mutombo Foundation. While I regret that I am unable to join you in person, I do want to offer my best wishes on the occasion of your Celebration Dinner in Washington, D.C.

In particular, I want to commend your organization for the humanitarian efforts you are making to the citizens of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. I share your interest in improving health care and the quality of life in countries around the world, and I am encouraged to learn about the concern you and Dikembe Mutombo have for your fellow man. In the years to come, I wish you only the best of luck as you continue to help others around the world.

Once again, please accept my best wishes and warmest hopes for all of you.

Sincerely,

Al Gore
